2

In the light of the moon a little egg lay on a leaf.

3

One warm day—pop!—a tiny and very hungry caterpillar ate its way out of the egg.

4

He started to look for some food.

5

For many days, the caterpillar ate through nice green leaves, and after that he felt much better.

6

Now he wasn't hungry any more—and he wasn't a little caterpillar any more. He was a big fat caterpillar.

7

He made a covering, called a chrysalis, around himself. He stayed inside for several days. Then he pushed his way out and...

8

he was a beautiful butterfly!
